

The Webmart Charitable Trust

INTRODUCTION

The Webmart Charitable Trust supports a wide range of people who need help as a result of various circumstances. The charity's objects are:

1. To promote sustainable development for the benefit of the public by:
 - the preservation, conservation and the protection of the environment and the prudent use of resources;
 - the relief and prevention of poverty and the improvement of the conditions of life in socially disadvantaged communities;
 - the promotion of sustainable means of achieving economic growth and regeneration

Key Facts

No minimum grant levels; each application judged on own merits

Aims to promote sustainable development and provide support to people to improve conditions of life

2. To provide support for people who have need by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, poverty or social and economic circumstances. Support is given with a view to improving the conditions of life by:
 - the provision of equipment, facilities and funds for programmes of physical, educational, vocational and other indoor and outdoor activities
 - grants and assistance for activities which develop their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society.

The Trusts' aim is to create maximum added value to those less fortunate by allowing them to create sustainable financial, intellectual and emotional gain for both themselves and their community.

FUNDS AVAILABLE

The Trust considers each application on its own merits and as a consequence does not set minimum or maximum grant levels. Applicants should demonstrate that their funding requirements clearly meet the trust's objects above. Funding can be for a one off or ongoing project.
